

YWCA PRINCETON TRIBUTE TO WOMEN 2012

Each year, the YWCA Princeton hosts the Tribute to Women Awards Dinner, the premier event to honor a select group of women in the greater Princeton area. These women have made extraordinary contributions to their professions and community in executive, entrepreneurial, professional, educational, and elected roles. The YWCA Princeton's 29th annual Tribute to Women Awards Dinner will be held on Thursday, March 1, 2012 at the Hyatt Regency Princeton. We are pleased to announce Dr. Risa Lavizzo-Mourey, the president and CEO of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, as our Honorary Chair.

Please join over 400 individuals in recognizing the significant achievements of these remarkable women and in celebrating the YWCA mission of eliminating racism, empowering women, and promoting peace, justice, freedom, and dignity.

Reserve your seats today! Simply complete the registration form on the reverse or register online at www.ywcaprinceton.org/tributetowomen.

2012 TRIBUTE TO WOMEN AWARD HONORARY CHAIR

Risa Lavizzo-Mourey, M.D., M.B.A., is the fourth president and CEO of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, a position she assumed in January 2003. She originally joined the staff in April 2001 as senior vice president and director, Health Care Group. Prior to joining the Foundation, Lavizzo-Mourey was the Sylvan Eisman Professor of Medicine and Health Care Systems at the University of Pennsylvania, as well as director of the Institute on Aging. She was the deputy administrator of the Agency for Health Care Policy and Research now known as the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality within the Department of Health and Human Services. While in government service, Lavizzo-Mourey worked on the White House Health Care Policy team, including the White House Task Force on Health Care Reform where she co-chaired the working group on Quality of Care.

Lavizzo-Mourey earned a medical degree at Harvard Medical School, followed by a masters in business administration at the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School. After completing a residency in internal medicine at Brigham and Women's Hospital in Boston, she was a Robert Wood Johnson Clinical Scholar at the University of Pennsylvania, where she received her geriatrics training.
