

In addition to the 2013 “Tribute to Women” awards dinner on March 7th, the YWCA Princeton and the Princeton Public Library have agreed to partner once again to deliver meaningful presentations that honor women everywhere. “I Am Every Woman: from a global perspective” is the theme for this special Women’s History Month celebration. Throughout the month of March, the Princeton Public Library and the YWCA Princeton will co-host specially selected films and live enactments that tell stories of courage, determination, and outstanding contributions by women all over the world.

All are welcome to attend the film screenings and presentations. Teens and adults will be inspired by the rich history that is revealed through the stories that have been selected. All film screenings and live enactments are free to attend and open to the community.

Following are the dates and times of film screenings and other events that are being hosted at the Princeton Public Library, 65 Witherspoon Street, Princeton, NJ 08542. The telephone number that people can call with any questions is the Library Welcome Desk (609) 924-9529 x218 or the Reference Desk at x220.

The dates and times for events being hosted at the Princeton Public Library in the Community Room are as follows:

March 1	Film: “Who Does She Think She Is”	7pm
March 12	Author Talk: Shereen El-Feki “Sex and the Citadel”	7pm
March 17	Key of She A Capella Group	3pm
March 18	Film: Veronica Guerin	7pm
March 22	Author Talk: Ifa Bayeza “Some Sing, Some Cry”	7pm
March 29	Film: “Oranges and Sunshine”	7pm

The following dates and times of the Lunch ‘n Learn presentations being hosted at the YWCA Princeton, 59 Paul Robeson Place, Princeton, NJ 08540, are scheduled from Noon – 1pm in the Bramwell House Living Room:

March 8th	Live enactment: “Clara Barton: Angel of the Battlefield”
March 15th	Presentation: “Who is Aung San Suu Kyi”
March 22nd	Live enactment: “Meet FEBA! Women in Congo Transforming Woe to Hope” (FEBA: Femme Berceau de L’Abondance – “Woman, Cradle of Abundance”)

For more information about the Lunch ‘n Learn presentations at the YWCA Princeton, please contact: Welcome Desk (609) 497- 2100 ext. 0. Remember to bring your lunch. Light refreshments will be provided.

“I am Every Woman: from a global perspective” is co-hosted by The Princeton Public Library and YWCA Princeton in honor of Women’s History Month, 2013.

This program is funded by the Horizons Speakers Bureau of New Jersey Council for the Humanities, a state partner of the National Endowment for the Humanities.