YWCA Princeton Postpones 2020 Tribute to Women Awards Until Thursday, May 28

Princeton, NJ Thursday March 12, 2020 -- YWCA Princeton has postponed its 2020 Tribute to Women Awards to Thursday, May 28th at the Hamilton Manor. With an abundance of caution regarding the COVID-19 pandemic, YWCA Princeton believes it is in the best interest to ensure the safety and health of the children, women, families, and communities it serves to postpone the event. The event was originally scheduled to be held on Thursday, March 26th.

The 2020 Tribute to Women Honorees are:

Adriana Abizadeh, President at Catalyst Consulting Group
Dr. Kemi Alli, Chief Executive Officer of the Henry J. Austin Health Center
Kimme Carlos, Director and Founder of the Urban Mental Health Alliance
Merodie Hancock, Ph.D., President at Thomas Edison State University
Katherine Nunnally, Chief Executive Officer of the Smith Family Foundation
JoAnne Parker, Community Leader
Sarah Torian, Housing Initiatives of Princeton
Jerlene Worthy, Clerk to Board of Chosen Freeholders, Mercer County

This year we also have the honor of recognizing individuals in special Honoree categories, as follows:

Moriah Akrong, Founder of the Golden Lotus Project, Young Woman Award Honoree
Mary Anne Haas, Community Leader, COMMUNITY Award Honoree
Lauren Lalicon, Policy Director for First Lady of NJ, Young Woman Award Honoree

The awards dinner, now rescheduled for Thursday, May 28th will be held from 5:30 pm to 8 pm at the Hamilton Manor in Hamilton, NJ. All inquiries regarding the event and its postponement should be directed to tribute@ywcaprinceton.org or 609-497-2100 x 316. More information about the event can be found at www.ywcaprinceton.org/tribute.
