

For Immediate Release

Contact: Haley Gorda
Communications & Marketing Manager
YWCA Princeton
hgorda@ywcaprinceton.org

YWCA Princeton to Host Free Block Party on September 17th

Princeton, NJ, August 16, 2022—To commemorate 100 years of service, YWCA Princeton will host a free block party on the YMCA field at 59 Paul Robeson Place on Saturday, September 17. The event will feature music and live performances, activities for children and families, tables with local nonprofits and vendors, and more. The Centennial Block Party will be the first in-person, public event hosted by YWCA Princeton since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic. "We are beyond excited to celebrate 100 years of impact with our community," shared YWCA Princeton CEO Tay Walker. "This milestone is a culmination of all we've accomplished together thus far, and the future we can pave for our children and the next generation."

Community organizations and vendors are invited to participate and share resources at the Centennial Block Party. Registration is encouraged, and volunteer opportunities are also available. To learn more about the event and how to get involved, visit <https://www.ywcaprinceton.org/blockparty/>.

About YWCA Princeton

YWCA Princeton is #OnAMission to eliminate racism, empower women and promote peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all. The YW advances its mission through programs that promote equity by creating opportunity, and support women and girls through every age and every stage of life. Programs and support services include childcare, English as a second language classes, a breast cancer resource center, professional and social groups, and more. For details about programs and advocacy, visit www.ywcaprinceton.org.

###